

IT MAY PROVE TO BE VERY SERIOUS

Great Britain Had No Right to Open Macrum's Official Letters.

WANT AN EXPLANATION

Resolution Was Introduced In the House Today Asking An Investigation.

Resolution Also Questions Secretary Hay As to the Truth of Macrum's Statement That a Secret Alliance Exists Between England and the United States—State Department Not Inclined to Treat the Matter Seriously.

Washington, Feb. 15.—[Special Telegram].—The Macrum statement charging that the state department has entered the United States into a secret alliance with Great Britain, has caused a tremendous sensation in official cir-

CHARLES E. MACRUM.

cles. It is likely that a thorough explanation will be demanded by congress.
If England has meddled with the United States mail addressed to Consul Macrum, as he charges it did, then there will be music by the full band.

Washington, Feb. 15.—[Special Telegram].—Representative Wheeler, democrat of Kentucky, introduced a resolution today calling on the secretary of state to report to congress what action had been taken in regard to securing an explanation from the British government for alleged opening of department mail addressed to Consul Macrum at Pretoria, also asking the secretary of state as to the truth of Macrum's statement that a secret alliance existed between the United States and Great Britain.

Have No Faith in Macrum.
Washington, Feb. 15.—[Special Telegram].—A high official in the state department whose utterances can be taken for those of the administration in speaking of the statement made by Macrum today said: "There was no occasion for this government remaining in the dark as to the conditions in South Africa. Macrum could have told his government anything he wanted to. His statement that he was asked to act as British consul and not American consul is ridiculous. If he charges that his mail was opened and read by the British censors it is a very serious matter. Macrum knew perfectly well he was to be replaced for he was so cabled. The state department is willing and anxious to wash its hands of Macrum."

Clark Bribery Investigation
Washington, Feb. 15.—[Special Telegram].—In the Clark bribery investigation this morning Judge Hunt, associate justice of the supreme court of Monttana, said that while the Wellcome disbarment case was pending before the supreme court, his family physician, Dr.
Tracey, interceded in behalf of Well-come, telling the witness there was a party there who had a hundred thousand dollars, which would be put up if the case was thrown out of court.

TO FIGHT THE PORTO RICO BILL

Open Rebellion Develops Among Republicans of the House Washington, Feb. 15.—Open rebellion has broken out in the house against the proposition of the republicans on the Ways and Means committee to establish a tariff against the products of Porto Rico. An informal conference was held in the cloakroom this afternoon with an attendance of seven to ten republican members who announced their intention of going back on the Ways and Means committee scheme and standing firmly on the position taken by the president in his annual message, in which he recommended free trade between the continent and the island of Porto Rico.

It is asserted by those in a position to know that fully twenty-five republicans will vote against the committee bill.
Most, if not all, of these seem to believe that the constitution gives congress full authority to make any discrimination it may choose as between unorganized territory and the United States proper.
Nevertheless they consider that the republican party is pledged to liberality and cannot afford to set up a barrier between two parts of the country.

CLINTON BABBITT IN DANGER

Beloit Man Had a Narrow Escape From Death Last Week
Beloit, Feb. 15.—Ex-Congressman Clinton Babbitt had a narrow escape from death last Thursday. During the heavy rain last week, Turtle creek began to rise rapidly, and Mr. Babbitt went out on horseback to drive some cattle to a place of safety. In crossing the stream he was swept from his horse by the flood, and would have been drowned but for the assistance given by Fred Yates, a neighbor, who took off his overcoat and threw it to Mr. Babbitt, to which he was able to cling until rescued.
The floating ice made Mr. Babbitt's position an extremely dangerous one, and he was unconscious when rescued after a hard struggle.

LIST OF CASUALTIES PROVES VERY LARGE

Gen. Buller Sends in a Long Report From the Battle at Renes-berg.

gram].—The official list of casualties at Renesberg on Feb. 12, shows Major Eddy of the Australians, Lieut. Powell of the Victorian rifles and seven men killed;

wounded.

No Hope For Ladysmith Manchester, Feb. 15.—[Special Cablegram].—The Guardians correspondent at Frere Camp cables that the relief of Ladysmith awaits Gen. Roberts' invasion of the Free State. The other routes to the beleaguered garrison, he says, present the same obstacles to Buller's army as those already tried.

Gen. Cleary On the Sick List Chioveley, Feb. 13.—[Special Cablegram].—Gen. Cleary is on the way to England invalided by suffering from blood poisoning. Gen. Lytleton has been appointed to the command of his brigade.

SEVENTEEN SAILORS DROWNED AT SEA

French Steamer Ernestine and Schooner Sunk in the Mediteranean Sea.

Bordeaux, Feb. 15.—[Special Cablegram].—The French steamer Ernestine has been lost in the Mediterranean and thirteen of her crew drowned. The schooner Notre Dame came ashore near here in a gale last night. Four of her crew were drowned.

BLOCKADE ON THE WHITE PASS

Serious State of Affairs On the Route to Dawson City.
Tacoma, Wash., Feb. 15.—Late advices from Alaska up to Jan. 15 state that the continued snow blockade of the white Pass railroad has caused a very disagreeable condition of affairs on the Yukon trail. The blockade has continued so long that some of the mail and police stations are out of provisions.

Notice has been issued that Dawson-bound travelers must not expect to be provided for at these places. The railroad has again been blockaded for three weeks. A rotary snowplow is expected from the summit daily. When it arrives the company has hopes of being able to send out a train that will get through to Bennett.

This week several men arrived from Bennett after severe experience at trail-breaking. A. Milber, one of them, reported that 200 Klondikers from Dawson were stalled at Bennett waiting for a train. Dogs with a light load can get through to Bennett. Horses can go to the toll gate, three miles from Skaguay.

MILWAUKEE IS CONFIDENT

Enthusiasts Claim the Democratic National Convention.
Milwaukee, Wis., Feb. 15.—Milwaukee has already secured the national democratic convention, according to the figures of the convention enthusiasts here. They say that thirty-two out of the fifty-two members of the committee have already promised to support this city. Kansas City, the only real rival they profess to have feared, is credited with but thirteen votes.
Mayor Rosa telegraphs from New York that no one in that city really wants the convention and that they are for Milwaukee. So confident is the committee now of the support promised it that the names of the committeemen are given out freely with the accompanying assertion that they are pledged to this city.

SELECT APRIL 25 DATE OF MEETING

CALL FOR WISCONSIN REPUB-LICAN CONVENTION.

It Will Be Composed of 1,067 Delegates —Change Made to Avoid Coming In Contact With Spring Elections.—Ed.
D. Coe Mentioned For Governor—Payne to Be Elected.

Milwaukee, Wis., Feb. 15.—Nineteen members of the republican state central committee—only one member, James Houston of the Ninth district, being absent—met at the Hotel Pfister yesterday afternoon and selected April 25 as the date of the convention of republican electors for the purpose of electing delegates to the national convention in Philadelphia, June 19, and for the purpose of nominating presidential electors to be voted for next November.

The new state committee and chairman will be elected at the convention to be held later to nominate a state ticket.
The chairman of the delegate convention will be chosen by Chairman Treat. The convention will be composed of 1,067 delegates, the basis being 1 delegate to every 250 votes or major fraction thereof.

The change of date from April 21 to April 25 was made unanimously. In the discussion that took place it was pointed out that it would be better to have the convention held after the spring election were over so that the bitterness which might develop in local fights would not be carried into the election of delegates for the state convention.

Room For Ed. D. Coe.
One result of the gathering in the Pfister lobby was the appearance of two new names in connection with the gubernatorial nomination; These were Ed.
D. Coe, pension agent for this district, and Gen. E. M. Rogers of Viroqua. Mr.
Coe laughed at the mention of his name, but for all that there may in time be more to talk than appears on the surface. He has a splendid soldier's record and has hosts of friends in all parts of the state. Gen. Rogers was quartermaster general under Gov. Rusk.
For a time he was affiliated with the La Follette wing of the party, but supported Gov. Scofield two years ago.

Payne Ought to Be Elected One thing that was strongly developed at the meeting was a general feeling that if Henry C. Payne wished to serve another two years as a member of the national republican committee he ought to be elected.

Mr. Payne, when he was asked if he was likely to accept a re-election said:
"Some time ago it was my intention to withdraw, as my private duties and the demands upon my time in my official capacity were two great. However, within the past week I have been considering the question of relieving myself of a portion of my duties, which will leave me more time for other matters, and I may see my way clear to do further work in an official capacity. I am very much gratified if the work which I have done during the presidential campaign and at other times has met the approval of the party." There seems little doubt from all that was heard that Mr. Payne will succeed himself on the national committee.

REPEALS HORTON PRIZE FIGHT LAW

Lewis Bill, Which Repeals the Famous Boxing Measure, Passes the New York Assembly.

Albany, New York, Feb. 15.—[Special Telegram].—The Lewis bill, which repeals the Horton boxing law and thus prohibits prize fighting in New York state, passed the assembly this morning.
The bill now goes to the senate for final action.

MAINE BLOWN UP TWO YEARS AGO

Memorial Services Were Held at the

of Havana.

Havana, Feb. 15.—[Special Cablegram].—Memorial services were held today at the wreck of the Maine which was blown up two years ago today.

GORMAN WILL SUPPORT BRYAN

Thinks Nothing Can Prevent the Nomination of the Nebraskan.
Washington, D. C., Feb. 15.—Ex-Senator Gorman today said he was now convinced "that nothing can prevent Bryan's election as the head of the democratic ticket. He certainly," added Mr. Gorman, "has the people behind him at a remarkable degree." Asked if he would support Bryan if nominated, he replied: "Certainly, I supported him in 1896, and I shall support him again this year."

Value of Cornstalks.
Cornstalks continue to increase in value. They yield cellulose, worth $400 a ton, for stopping holes in battleships, for fine cardboard and paper, the best foundation for dynamite, a patent cattle food and a superior glue. But it is said that 250,000,000 tons of cornstalks will go to waste every year in England.

WHAT WISCONSIN OWES TO THE COW

OUR DAIRY PRODUCTS ANNU-ALLY REACH $35,000,000.

The Cow Has Been Busy Paying Farm Mortgages and Building Farm Homes
—She Is Making the Farmers Rich
—H. C. Adams Talk to Dairymen at Watertown.

Watertown, Wis., Feb. 15.—Last evening the visiting Wisconsin dairymen were entertained with a fine musical and literary program. This included an address by State Dairy and Food Commissioner Henry C. Adams of Madison.

After referring to the improved condition of the farmer in recent years, and mentioning the facilities afforded by the state to assist in still further advancing agricultural methods, Mr. Adams said: Wisconsin a Great Dairy State

"The education and thoughtfulness of the farmer has made this a great dairy state. We produce more cheese than any other state in the Union except New York, and produce nearly as much butter as our neighboring state of Iowa.
The total annual value of the dairy productions of Wisconsin has been placed at $35,000,000. This amount is about 10 per cent. of the total assessed valuation of the farms of the state and of the personal property of the men who own them. The cow has been busy paying farm mortgages and building farm homes. She is making the counties of Green, Rock, Dunn, Dodge, Richland, Jefferson, Manitowish, Sheboygan, Ozaukee, Fond du Lac, Winnebago, and all those counties where the farmers are wise enough to recognize her debt-paying and money-producing power."

"While the Wisconsin farmer is making money and acquiring knowledge, he should not be satisfied with the present conditions. There are many things which he can fairly demand, and one is the primary principle of agriculture.
Another is a system of taxation which shall relieve him of unjust burdens. Another is, that the state should give all the aid possible within its financial resources to the building of good roads.
And, finally, that great monopolies and trusts of such a character and extent that they threaten the life of trade and prejudice the interests of consumers shall be regulated by either state or national law. The farmers of Wisconsin should go on as they are doing, increasing their knowledge and improving their farm methods."

The association was in session today and tonight a banquet will be given them. The convention will adjourn tomorrow.

MAY SIDETRACK THE NICARAGUA TREATY

It is Certain That it Cannot Pass the U. S. Senate in Its Present Form.

Washington, Feb. 15.—Unless the desired fortification clause is incorporated in the Nicaragua canal treaty with Great Britain the pact is likely to be pigeon-holed by the United States senate. Such action was foreshadowed in the republican senatorial caucus yesterday, a tacit agreement being reached to sidetrack it for other measures if the amendment demanded is not made.

Without such amendment the treaty seems doomed either to death by inanition or to outright defeat. The former seems the more probable course, as the friends of the treaty do not dare push it to a vote and the opponents are well satisfied with action tantamount to laying it on the table. It can therefore be predicted with reasonable safety that the favorite senatorial custom of killing an objectionable measure by throwing it out with other measures is again to be resorted to.

Failure to act on the treaty is likely to be accomplished by lack of legislation during the present session of congress for the construction of the canal itself.
Pending the definite settlement of the diplomatic questions involved the friends of the project are not desirous of pushing it at a time when their success may put the United States to a maximum of expense for a minimum of profit.
For these reasons the opinion is gaining ground that no action will be taken on either the treaty or the canal itself until next winter.

Fire at Beloit Last Night Beloit, Wis., Feb. 15.—[Special].— Fire broke out in Pluekiger Bros. grocery and meat market on West Bridge street last night at 9 o'clock and the loss will be from one to two thousand dollars. The fire was caused from an overheated stove. The rear of the store was badly damaged as the flames had a good start before the alarm was turned in. It is rather a coincidence as three different stores have been visited by fire during the last week.

SHARKEY MAY FIGHT FITZ

Accepts the Challenge and Will Cover the $5,000 Deposit.

New York, Feb. 15.—Tom Sharkey has accepted Bob Fitzsimmons' challenge, and will agree to fight the ex-champion as soon as possible. Tom O'Rourke, manager of Sharkey, arrived here from Philadelphia this afternoon, where he was a second of the sailor in the bout with Goddard last night. O'Rourke said that he would open negotiations immediately for a match with Fitzsimmons, and would cover the latter's $5,000 within a few days.

"We shall insist on the condition that all the money shall go to the winner," said O'Rourke. "At first I was inclined to believe Fitz was not sincere in his desire to fight the sailor, but now that he has posted money and issued a challenge we shall lose no time in clinching a match."

TO NOMINATE BRYAN FIRST

tion Early in May

Washington, Feb. 15.—The populist national committee, which will meet in Lincoln, Neb., next Monday, will vote to hold the populist convention early in May, or at least a month before the democratic national convention, so that it may have the privilege of placing Mr.
Bryan in nomination first.

HOT FIGHT WITH REBELS AT ALBAY

Americans Attacked at Daraga by Three Thousand Filipinos—Rebels Lost 71 Killed.

Manila, Feb. 15.—[Special Cablegram].—Advices from Albay tell of a hot fight with the insurgents on Feb.
5th. During the night the Americans at Daraga, near Albay were attacked by three thousand insurgents.

Reinforcements for the Americans arrived from Albay, but meanwhile the insurgents forced their attack setting fire to many houses. The Fortieth volunteers were forced to retire to a convent.

At Daraga the garrison was forced into the town hall, where the former banished prisoners fought with the Americans against the rebels.

The latter lost seventy-one killed, the Americans two killed and five wounded.
Gen. Otis cabled the war department that Gen. Bates had left today with two infantry regiments and a battery for San Miquel Bay, province of Camarines Sur, to move on Nueva Caceras and the towns in that vicinity. The insurgents in Camarines show considerable activity.
They made an attack on the troops along the southeastern coast of Luzon.
It is reported that they hold many Spanish and a few American prisoners.

WISCONSIN REFUSES OFFER

Declines to Play Football with Yale But Tenders Thanks For Date

Madison, Wis., Feb. 15.—There will be no football game between Wisconsin and Yale this year. This was decided at a meeting of the board of directors of the Athletic association last evening. A resolution of thanks was extended Yale for the offer. The reason for the declination was that Wisconsin has already secured a strong schedule of western games and it was feared the eastern trip would debilitate the men.

England Is Justified in Her War Against

take the part of the Boers.

WILL LOCATE IN ST. PAUL

Arthur Valentine Secures Excellent Position in Office of Great Northern.

Arthur Valentine, son of A. M. Valentine, leave soon for St. Paul which city he expects to make his future home. He accepts an excellent position in the main office of the Great Northern railroad.
Mr. Valentine is an expert telegraph operator and is well informed with work in connection with a railroad office.
Numerous local friends will regret much his departure but will join in extending best wishes.

Old Hudson Has Receipts

Among some curious records of the Hudson Bay company are receipts which read as follows. "Received per Lapwing, Jane Goody, as per invoice, in good condition." "Received per Osprey, Matilda Timbins. Returned per Lapwing, as not being in accordance with description contained in invoice." These belong to pioneer times, when white men who settled in new parts of the country were either obliged to remain bachelors, marry squaws or send east for wives, trusting to the judgment of the company to select them and send them out.

TAYLOR SERVED TODAY

Acknowledges Service of Papers In Beckham vs. Taylor Quo-Warranto Suit.

Republican Hope In Taft Is Gone—Tay- lor Refused Federal Aid—Kentucky's Acting Governor Must Rely On State Court to Retain Office—Files Suits to That End, But Beckham Starts Ouster Suits.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 15.—[Special Telegram].—On both sides of the gubernatorial fight everything today seems to be at sea. Some of the Goebel democrats believe that the democratic legislators will return from Louisville Monday.
The sheriff served papers in the quo-warranto suit of Beckham vs. Taylor on the latter today.

Griggs Wrote the Message

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 15.—[Special Telegram].—It is just learned that Attorney General Griggs was the author of the message from the administration at Washington sent by DeBoe to Taylor telling him that he had acted wrong, that the feeling was against him and that no assistance could be expected from Washington.

TAYLOR REFUSED FEDERAL AID Judge Taft Decided That He Has No Jurisdiction

Cincinnati, Ohio, Feb. 15.—The application of the Kentucky republican state officials, exclusive of the governor, for an injunction from the United States court to stop the democratic state election commission from proceeding with the contest to oust the newly elected republican officials, was disposed of in the United States Circuit court in this city by Judge Taft.
A large number of Kentuckians, including the officials who applied for the injunction, were in court, headed by former Gov. Bradley and Augustus Wilson, their counsel. The decision given completely dashed the hopes of the republicans. It went against them on the point on which they had, most of all, put their faith, and, as far as they were able to see, it left no hope for future intervention by the United States court.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 15.—When informed that Judge Taft, at Cincinnati, had refused jurisdiction, Gov. Taylor gave out the following signed statement: "The decision of Judge Taft, holding that his court has no jurisdiction in the case of the minor state officers, does not affect the merits of the case. He does not determine that the petitioners had no merits in their cases, but only that his court could not take jurisdiction and right the wrong."

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 15.—Gov. W. S.
Taylor, in an attempt to anticipate similar action by the democrats, filed a suit in the Circuit court seeking an injunction to restrain J. C. W. Beckham from attempting to perform the duties of the office of governor, and Gen. John B. Castleman from attempting to discharge the duties of adjutant-general. It is not yet known what day the court will consider the bill, or what hearing it will have upon the injunction proceedings filed before Judge Cantrell by Mr. Beckham's lawyers, seeking to enjoin Taylor from acting as governor and holding the state property pertaining to that office.

Russian Dinners

The etiquette of a Russian dinner is decidedly formal. When the guests are seated, the host and hostess of the feast remain standing, it being their pleasure to attend upon the company and to see that the servants do their duty. Nothing can escape their observation; the plate of no guest remains empty for a moment, nor is a wine glass ever without contents.
French wines are mostly drunk at Russian dinners. Madeira is also a favorite, and a bottle of port is always served to an English guest. At her own time the hostess gives the signal, and all rise from the table.

Henry Clay and the Hunter.

When Henry Clay was stumping Kentucky for re-election, at one of his mass meetings an old hunter of wide political influence said: "Well, Harry, I've always been for you, but because of that vote (which he named) I'm going to vote against you." "Let me see your rifle," said Clay. It was handed to him. "Is she a good rifle?" "Yes." "Did she ever miss fire?" "Well, yes, once." "Why didn't you throw her away?"
The old hunter thought a moment and then said: "Harry, I'll try you again."
And Harry was elected.

All Star Show At Tattersalls.
"All Star" will be the next boxing show at Tattersalls, Chicago, to be held on Tuesday night, Feb. 20. The card, which is the biggest and evenest ever offered for one night's show, comprises the following events:

Jack Root vs. Ed. Dentess, for the middleweight championship of the west; Dal Hawkins of California, vs. Jack Hudson for the lightweight championship of the west; Benny Yanger, the Tipton Slasher, vs. Jack Madden; Barney Connors, the strong rolling mill man, against Jim Driscoll, for the much disputed welterweight championship of Chicago; and Oscar Gardner vs. Tommy White, for the 126 pound championship of the world. There may be another important addition to this already rich card.

That Jack Root and Ed. Dentess are to come together is good news to Chicago and out-of-town sport lovers who witnessed the big show at Tattersalls on February 1, and saw the strong Quaker boy dispose of big Billy Stiff. It was the expressed desire of all hands, then, that Dentess should be matched against Jack Root, who in more than forty battles had never suffered defeat. In fact he has never even allowed an opponent so much as a draw. Dentess, who has come to the front with startling rapidity, has an equally clean score of victories. George Siler will be the referee of these bouts assisted by James Braddell.

Corpulence.
Extreme corpulence is a disease. It interferes with breathing, the backing up against the diaphragm prevents the free action of the lungs and interferes with the free action of the body and limbs. High living, rich food in abundance, malt liquors in large quantities, sedentary, quiet and indolent habits tend toward corpulence. Corpulent people are generally found with an easy going disposition, and are in most cases on pretty good terms with themselves and everybody else. They are mostly of a jolly, easy going, pleasant and agreeable temperament.

A GOOD SUGGESTION.

It would appear, to a layman, that Senator John M. Whitehead's suggestions to the State Bar Association as to the enactment of legislation were of a decidedly practical nature. He advocated the selection of a standing joint committee to revise the bills passed and report before the final adjournment of the legislature, a recess being taken while the committee did its work. The statutes would thus be shorn of their verbiage, and made as compact as possible, before they went into effect. The Bar Association thought well of the plan as is shown by the fact that at the conclusion of Senator Whitehead's address, the chair was instructed to appoint a special committee of three to submit at the next annual meeting of the association recommendations for reforms along the lines laid down by the speaker. Senator Whitehead was made chairman of this committee.

The suspicion that Senator Goebel was shot by a personal enemy continues to grow. It now appears that at least four people saw the shooting, and their stories agree. They say that Goebel was slain by an unknown man who shot him at short range, and in the side away from the state house. All are positive that the bullet did not come from the capitol building.

The storm center has shifted to Illinois where Governor Tanner and Senator Cullum are now engaged in a catch-as-catch-can fight. Governor Tanner has scored the first advantage but the end is not yet. As to an outsider it would appear that the fight was of a state-against-Chicago nature, and the appearances might lead to the belief that the state will win.

All milk cows should undergo a rigid examination, and all milk should be inspected. Milk is a fruitful vehicle of disease, as is shown by the fact that at a meeting of the Massachusetts Association of Boards of Health, the statement was made that on the average city milk contained from 7,000,000 to 10,000,000 bacteria per cubic centimeter.

Many members of the Twilight club insist that the Boer-British question is still far from settled and that the subject would not be exhausted even if another meeting was devoted to its consideration.

The lawyers often say that their cases are not reported correctly in the newspapers, yet the newspapers seldom report that the lawyers are often on the wrong side of the case themselves.

Give the news to the reporter, and expect no more of him than he expects of you. This arrangement will invariably be found to be of mutual advantage.

FIVE LAAGERS ARE TAKEN.

Lord Roberts Reports Brilliant Sortie Made by French's Brigade.

BRITISH LOSS IS SMALL.

Passage Forced Over Klip Drift, Hills on the North Occupied, and Boer Camps Captured—Infantry Moving to Support Cavalry.

London, Feb. 13.—A large part of Joubert's army has crossed the Tugela and is closing in on Buller. The river has been bridged and the south bank fortified in preparation for battle. Gen. Buller reports several brushes with the foe recently in which he lost a number of men. The Boers have occupied the former British camp at Spearman's farm.

The total British casualty returns up to last night are:

| OFFICERS. | |
|---------------------------|--------|
| Killed | 132 |
| Wounded | 390 |
| Missing | 210 |
| MEN. | |
| Killed | 1,477 |
| Wounded | 5,050 |
| Missing | 2,781 |
| Other fatalities reported | 58 |
| Grand total | 10,515 |

The lists do not include the casualties in several recent engagements on which complete reports are still lacking.

London, Feb. 15.—The following dispatch from Gen. Lord Roberts has been received at the war office:

"Deklei's Drift, Modder River, Feb. 14.—French left here at 11:30 yesterday morning with three brigades of cavalry, horse artillery, and mounted infantry, including several colonial contingents, in order to seize a crossing of the Modder river twenty-five miles distant. He reports at 5:35 p. m. that he has forced a passage of Klip drift and occupied the hills north of the river, capturing three of the enemy's laagers, with their supplies, while Lieut.-Col. Gordon of the Fifteenth Hussars, who was with his brigade, and who made a feint on Rondevaal drift, four miles west, seized it and the second drift between it and Klip drift and two more laagers.

French's Performance Brilliant.
"French's performance was brilliant, considering the excessive heat and a blinding duststorm, which raged during the latter part of the day. Owing to the rapidity of his movements French met with but slight opposition, and his losses were small. Lieut. Johnson of the Inniskilling dragoons being the only officer reported severely wounded.

"The Sixth division was last night on the north bank of the Riet river, at Waterval drift, and is moving to support the cavalry. The Seventh division is here. It goes on this afternoon. Four officers and fifty-three men had to be sent to the territory in returning ox wagons last night, they having been prostrated by heat exhaustion."

Roberts Himself Moving.

The war office previously gave out the following dispatch:
"On Feb. 12 Gen. French seized the crossing on the Riet river at Deklei's drift, on the east bank of which the Sixth and Seventh divisions are now encamped."

The conclusion to be drawn from the two dispatches would seem to be that when French seized the crossing at Deklei's drift, which is not marked on the maps, but is probably a short distance from the camp at the Modder, Gen. Roberts moved his headquarters to the drift, as it is from that place he dates his latest dispatch. This seems the more probable, as French's operations are reported as occurring on different days—Feb. 12 and Feb. 13 and 14.

However, Gen. Roberts' advance from Modder river seems to have begun with considerable success. The British have invaded the Orange Free State in an attempt to flank the left of Commandant Cronje's force at Magersfontein. They have gained possession of four drifts, by which the Riet and Modder rivers were apparently crossed, and have captured five Boer laagers, with their supplies, though there is no official indication of the amount of booty.

Boer Forces Cut Off.

It is difficult to follow the movement clearly here, owing to the imperfection of the maps, but it seems that Gen. French's rapid operation not only cut off the Boers' communication with Jacobsdal, but barred their direct route to Bloemfontein, while at the same time exposing the enemy to a flank attack on the road to Boshof. Such, at any rate, is the view of the situation taken here.

It is assumed that Gen. Methuen still holds a position south of Magersfontein, and it is regarded as probable that Gen. MacDonald's expedition to Koodoosberg has for its main object the drawing of the Boers' attention westward from the contemplated move of Gen. French.

Telegrams from Lourenco Marques record the arrival there of Mr. Webster Davis, American assistant secretary of the interior, from Pretoria. He will sail on the German steamer Kanzler for Naples, en route to New York. The Times correspondent says that Mr. Davis emphatically repudiates alleged interviews with him published by the Standard and Diggers' News of Johannesburg, in which he was made to say that the Boers were unconquerable, because God intended that such brave people should be forever free.

Lourenco Marques has had no telegraphic communication with Pretoria for two days.

English Women Play Solitaire.

Ladies of the royal court of England, from the queen down, are playing the old-time game of "patience," known as solitaire in this country. Every spare minute is taken up with one or the other of the hundred varieties of the game. "Patience" boards, enabling one to play the game on the knees, are covered with colored satin embroidered with various suits of the cards. Pockets are arranged for the pack, and a book of directions accompanies each board. The board enables the player to stop a game at any point and return to it later without losing her place. But it is doubtful if the fad will take in this country. It requires a vivid imagination to conjure up such a spectacle as a roomful of American women playing solitaire.

Honey a Healthful Food.

Scientific men say that honey is a much more healthful sweet than sugar, and has many valuable properties. It is nutritive, and when used freely with bread makes an excellent food for children. It is laxative, and may be used advantageously in place of medicine by persons of sedentary lives. Being also the daintiest and most delicious of sweets—an extract of blossoms—it is hardly possible to eat it to an injurious extent. It needs no digestion, as sugar does, and even acts as a digestive aid.

Sailors Scarce in Maine.

A scarcity of sailors more general than ever before in the history of Maine shipping prevails at the present time, and the wages of seamen have risen to an unusual point.

Good Farm Homes Cheap

The Chicago & Northwestern Railway Company owns 550,000 acres of hard wood timber land in Northern Wisconsin, which lands are now being offered to actual settlers at low prices. The lands are well located, afford railway, postal, church and school advantages. These lands should not be confounded with the pine stumpage lands now offered in this market. Land that grows pine is invariably sandy.

The C. & N. W. Tracts grow hard wood and cannot be excelled by "openings" in the country.

The logs, posts and poles find ready sale at nearby saw mills, and when the land is once cleared excellent agricultural soil is the result.

Excursions will be run to these lands on Tuesday of each week, round trip tickets being sold at $6.71

They are for sale at my office. I should be glad to furnish printed matter and other information to all interested.

WICKS AND WOMAN PLACED BEHIND BARS

MRS. EMMA WARD AND INFANT IN A CELL.

Chief Hogan Made Their Arrest This Morning In a Vacant House On Prospect Avenue—Man Tried Hard to Work His Escape—Both Are Well Known.

Chief of Police Hogan this morning placed under arrest Henry Wicks and Mrs. Emma Ward. Both prisoners were taken to the city lock-up and placed in cells. Mrs. Ward is nursing a child, and the infant accompanied its mother to the bastille.

The prisoners are both residents of this city, and were arrested in a vacant house on Prospect avenue, near the corner of Wisconsin street, on the charge of improper conduct.

Wicks is about twenty eight years of age and resides near the Milton avenue city limits. He is unmarried and works at odd jobs.

Mrs. Ward formerly made her home on Prospect avenue in the house where she was arrested this morning. Her two boys were recently taken from her by an order from Judge Sale's court and sent to the state school at Sparta. It is alleged that Mrs. Ward and Wicks have been keeping company of late.

Last evening it is said that Mrs. Ward and Wicks gained an entrance to the vacant house on Prospect avenue. A portion of Mrs. Ward's household goods are still in this house. After forcing an entrance they built a fire in a stove. Complaint soon reached the police and this morning Chief Hogan made their arrest.

While on the way to the lockup Wicks broke away from Chief Hogan near the corner of Milwaukee and Bluff streets. After a lively chase he was captured and locked up.

This afternoon at 3 o'clock the defendants appeared in the municipal court, and will in all probability be punished.

EXPERIMENT WITH COWS AND CALVES

Dr. Q. O. Sutherland and Other Members of the State Board of Health at Madison.

Dr. Q. O. Sutherland of Janesville, as a member of the state board of health is making some interesting experiments these days at the state experimental station at Madison in relation to consumption. Cattle are being used as subjects. What the members of the state board of health are trying to find out is whether or not consumption is contagious. Cows ill with tuberculosis are kept on hand. Healthy calves that are known not to be affected in any way with the disease, are then allowed to feed from these cows. From the experiments that have been made the doctors are satisfied that within three months' time these calves have contracted the disease. The physicians say that the same applies to the mother ill with consumption allowing a healthy child to nourish from her breast. The experiments now being made at Madison will continue for some time and the members of the state medical board promise soon to reveal some interesting reports.

CEMETERY CHAPEL HAS BEEN ACCEPTED

One of the Most Model Structures of Its Kind in This Portion of the State.

Oak Hill cemetery chapel is now completed. It has been accepted by the building committee, in company with the superintendent, S. S. Norris, after careful inspection. The building is in the form of a Greek cross, 40x41, with buttresses at each corner. It is built of stone from our local quarries; random course, rock face work, with Bedford stone trimmings; Bangor slate roof; sheet metal work, copper; two large ornamental stained glass windows; 10x16 feet, and three smaller ones.

Two of the windows are memorial, one being over the front entrance, and has the emblem of the Knights of Pythias upon it, and is in memory of the late A. P. Bennett. The other is a memorial for Starr Judd, the young son of Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Judd.

W. H. Ashcraft, the furniture dealer, furnished the chapel yesterday with a table for the officiating clergyman, an arm chair for the center of the platform and one for each side for assistants and sixty of the most improved camp chairs.

The interior of the chapel is finished in birch in the natural wood and hardwood floor. Its seating capacity is one hundred.

The contractor, John Knudson, is entitled to much credit for the workmanlike manner in which he had done his part of the contract. The chapel is the most solid and substantial for its size of any in the city. It is fire proof and by its unique form of architecture stands out distinct from any other building of its nature in Janesville.

The purpose of the chapel is to accommodate the public and for the present is free to all to use for full burial services or the final grave service at the cemetery. The grading and ornamentation of the grounds around the chapel will be completed in the spring.

M'KEY RIDES BLIND BAGGAGE

Expressman Takes Jolly Janesville Man For a Robber.

Here is a good one on George McKey. He was down to Beloit one day last week on business and stood inside the depot talking to the agent of the Northwestern line until his train "Badger State Express" began to pull out for Janesville. George made a dash to get aboard but found all the vestibule doors closed except one near the head of the train which he swung himself into as the train gathered speed for the run to Afton Junction.

Congratulating himself on his narrow escape he tried the door into the car and found it locked! The train by this time was flying up along Rock river and there was a bitter cold wind blowing in on him as he shook and kicked the door. He yelled to the men inside to open the door, but it was the express car and the expressman thought he was a robber and yelled back that he would be shot the moment he forced the door. This announcement quieted the noise outside and the run to Afton was made without the door being dynamited as the men inside expected every minute. When the train reached the junction the expressman rushed around to the front of the car where they found the genial George shivering with cold and his nose blue from the effects of the wind—and the air was soon a beautiful tinge of the same color, from his expressions which were profuse. He has since made a new rule. He gets on board before the train starts.—Beloit Free Press.

KIMBALLS WANT FACTORY LOCATION

GREAT PIANO FACTORY MIGHT BE BROUGHT HERE.

That Is If the Inducement Were Only of Strong Enough Nature—Chicago Concern Incensed Because of Insufficient Police Protection—Employ Several Thousand Hands.

How would it seem to have a piano factory in our midst that would give employment to several thousand skilled workmen?

Word has been received in this city that statements have been made public that the W. W. Kimball Piano company of Chicago is looking for an outside location. There is talk of a movement to bring the concern to this city, and it is probable that some definite action will be taken very soon.

The reason given by the Kimball company for leaving Chicago is that the troubles with union labor seem to be unbearable. A direct statement to that effect is not made by Mr. Kimball nor the other officers of the company, but they will not deny that such is the plan.

SLABS MARK GRAVES OF FALLEN HEROES

Head Grave Stones Are Soon Expected in Janesville Free From the United States Government.

Head grave stones are soon expected in this city to be placed on the graves of the veterans of the war who are buried here. These stones are sent free by the government; and an order for them was placed to years ago, but on account of the Spanish war the department was too busy to attend to it, but have again taken the matter up. These are marble slabs, four inches thick, eighteen inches wide and about three feet high.

SLEIGHS OUT ONCE MORE

Steady Fall of Snow Last Night Covers the Ground Well.

Early this morning snow fell covering the ground so that it was at least noticeable.

Sleighs were brought out this morning and the hard condition of the streets and country roads will insure sleighing for a short time at least.

The article in the Gazette of last evening on the disappearance of Donald Spencer from Chicago, resulted in locating the missing lad. A subscriber on reading the article informed Chief Hogan that the boy was in Beloit. Chief Hogan then telephoned the police at the Line City and Spencer's arrest followed.

LATE NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

SAYS HAY IS BRITAIN'S TOOL

Macrum Implies Secretary Takes Orders from England.

HOLDS THERE IS AN ALLIANCE.

Official United States Mail Addressed to Him Opened and Read by Censor at Durban—Cable Dispatches Sent by Him Detained—He Issues a Statement.

Washington, Feb. 15.—Charles E. Macrum of Ohio, former consul of the United States at Pretoria, South African republic, whose home coming during the war at his own request has been surrounded by so much mystery, gives out a long statement in which he tells why he left Pretoria. Mr. Macrum is angry with Secretary Hay and his department. He hints that Mr. Hay has been acting on the advice of the British government in making things unpleasant for Mr. Macrum.

Mr. Macrum says he did not know when he went to Pretoria that there was any secret alliance between the United States and Great Britain, but he neglects to tell whether he knows it now.

Reasons for Leaving Pretoria. Mr. Macrum starts off with a statement of his reasons for leaving Pretoria:

"The situation in Pretoria," he says, "was such that, first, as official, I could not remain there while my government at home was apparently in the dark as to the exact condition in South Africa. Secondly, as a man and citizen of the United States, I could not remain in Pretoria sacrificing my own self-respect and that of the people of Pretoria while the government at home continued to leave me in the position of a British consul and not an American consul."

Mr. Macrum goes on to tell how in the face of his statement, issued under instructions from Washington, that Americans must remain neutral, Americans were continually taking up arms for the Boers. "I know," he says, "that many of them, in utter despair at the apparent attitude of our own government, were taking the oath of allegiance to the Transvaal Republic."

When his vice consul, Mr. Van Ameringen, joined the Boers' forces Mr. Macrum thought it was about time to report these conditions to Washington.

Mail Opened by Censor.

Four weeks passed after the opening of the war, Mr. Macrum says, before he received any mail from his government or a personal letter. When he got his mail he found that envelopes bearing the seal of the American government bore stickers, saying that their contents had been read by the British censor at Durban. Then Mr. Macrum looked up international law, "but," to use his own words, "failed to find anywhere that one military power can use its own discretion as to forwarding the official dispatches of a neutral government to its representative in a besieged country."

Mr. Macrum appears to be right about this, and his charge may cause the state department to call on the British government for an explanation. It was on Nov. 6 that Mr. Macrum cabled to the state department, for leave of absence. In that dispatch he said that his vice consul had enlisted in the Boer army, and Mr. Atterbury, an American, whom he had known favorably for more than a year, could take charge of the consulate until Mr. Macrum's return. The department answered promptly that Mr. Macrum's presence in Pretoria was important to public interests.

On Nov. 8 Mr. Macrum wired the department that the situation was not critical, that Atterbury was competent, and that his presence in America was important. No answer came and he wired again three days later.

Cable Held Eighteen Days. On Nov. 14 he sent still another dispatch, saying he would forfeit his post if he could not give satisfactory reasons for his return. This cable was held for 18 days.

RUSSIANS ARE ACTIVE.

Great Britain Begins to Fear an Invasion of Afghanistan.

London, Feb. 15.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Times, remarking that "it will not do to place overmuch reliance upon Russia's official assurances that nothing will be done to embarrass England in the present situation of affairs," gives additional details showing that the delays in the ordinary traffic on the Central Asian railway are not caused, as has been officially stated, by snowfalls. He asserts they are due to the passage of Russian troops, estimated at 20,000, who are being concentrated in the vicinity of Kuchuk. The correspondent adds that "most Russians are convinced that Russia intends, sooner or later, to take Herat."

Union Men Gain a Point.

Chicago, Feb. 15.—The union men in the building trades now on strike or locked out scored a point Wednesday when the Independent Brotherhood of Carpenters and Builders resolved to stand by the union. Inasmuch as the contractors were depending upon the brotherhood to furnish men to take the places of the strikers and men locked out, the amalgamation leaves them at the mercy of the unionists, who now declare they will make the strike an international affair, and call out the men employed by Chicago contractors in New York, Philadelphia, Toronto, Montreal, San Francisco, Salt Lake and the City of Mexico. The officers of the union say they have sounded their fellow-union men in all these cities and have been assured they will go out if called. The contractors say the union is only "bluffing," and are not alarmed over the international aspect assumed by the labor war.
